Budgeting and Finance Human Resources Services Include: Services Include: ☐ Benefit Plan Development □ Cash Flow Management and/or Administration Including production of annual budgets, Development of benefits proposal bid specifications, analysis of accounting and up-to-date cash balance as well plans and costs as well as negotiation of benefit plan contracts. as tracking both projected and actual revenue and expenses. ■ Payroll and Benefits Processing Processing all payroll and benefits systems, assuring payment of Payments all employer taxes as well as filing all required employer-related Processing all payments to individuals and organizations, tax reports. access to cost center account tracking. ☐ Personnel Policies Development ■ Tracking and Statements Development of Personnel Policies and Procedures to be Tracking, including depreciation, of all assets as well as followed in the recruitment, employment and retention of staff production of monthly financial information including balance and to assure compliance with federal, state and local sheets and income statements employment regulations/laws. Deposits Supervision Training Accounts receivable, processing all deposits. Development of general information on supervision and specific information concerning the nonprofit corporation, policies and Regulatory and Tax Compliance procedures on disciplinary and grievance processes for staff as Filing all required taxes, reports, etc. well as the development of guidelines for and assistance with compensation plans and performance evaluations. Training Training on basic accounting and budgeting for ■ Specialized Training staff, Board, etc. Development of training programs specific to the needs of your organization. Programs can also be developed for your Board of Directors. Arrangement can be made for professional education; credits to meet CEU, CAC, NCCB and Act 48 requirements.

Administration Services Include:

☐ Grant Support
Review of grant applications for consistency with policies and legal limitations, grant agreement compliance, monitor grant reporting deadlines, proposal review and technical assistance.
☐ Communications

Development of materials to be used internally and externally for the purposes of communicating the organization's mission, goals, special activities and/or events. Development of program guides, annual reports, newsletters, etc. is also available.

■ Management

Transitional administrative management of programs/services. Technical assistance and consultation services are also available.